JIM BUCK ROSS
COMMISSIONER

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI

This bulletin contains historic agricultural data for 1987, which was a reasonably good year for farmers. Prices received were much improved over the previous year and yields were adequate with cotton having particularly good yields. The economic climate for agriculture has shown improvement and the outlook for the future is generally optimistic.

We have provided this bulletin to the people of Mississippi in order to keep the public informed on the status and progress of the State's largest industry and to fulfill one of the responsibilities of your Department of Agriculture and Commerce.

Respectfully,

Jim Buck Ross
